

UNEMPLOYMENT:

A SAVINGS OPPORTUNITY FOR NONPROFIT, GOVERNMENT AND TRIBAL EMPLOYERS

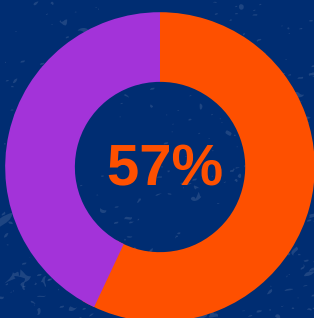

If your organization is paying state unemployment taxes (SUTA), you are most likely overpaying for unemployment insurance. 501(c)3 nonprofit, government and tribal employers joining First Nonprofit programs choose to be financially liable for only their own unemployment claims (called "reimbursing") and not pay via SUTA. By making the switch, our new 2017 members saved an average of 31%! Here are a few savings samples from some of our VisionServe Alliance clients:
